

FALL IN POULSBO

Little Norway is even cozier after summer.

The Natural Side of the Puget Sound

I have 30 minutes

Stroll the Liberty Bay boardwalk and linger by the marina.

Grab a cardamom braid, donut, or coffee at Sluys Poulsbo Bakery.

Wander a stretch of Front Street's shops and galleries.

Snap photos of the Viking statue, waterfront, and fall color.

I have 2 hours

Combine the Poulsbo Maritime Museum with a Front Street shopping loop.

Explore Poulsbo Fish Park, then warm up with coffee or lunch downtown.

Stop by the SEA Discovery Center, then pick a bakery treat for the road.

Head to Keyport for the free U.S. Naval Undersea Museum; check hours before leaving.

I have tonight free

Pick a waterfront or Front Street dinner spot, then take an after-dinner boardwalk stroll.

Make it a Nordic night with Tizley's Europub, the Sons of Norway lodge when open, and dessert downtown.

Catch a film-festival screening October 9–11 or a Second Saturday Art Walk.

Sample Poulsbo's brewery and cidery scene with a designated driver or rideshare lined up.

I have Saturday

Kick off at the Poulsbo Farmers Market and continue to Fish Park, then spend the afternoon exploring downtown.

Build a museum day around the Maritime Museum, Heritage Museum, SEA Discovery Center, and Naval Undersea Museum.

Take a North Kitsap loop out to the Suquamish Museum and Clearwater Casino Resort.

Pick one fall event as the anchor, then add dinner plus another hotel night.

Someone is joining me

Share pastries and coffee, then browse Front Street together.

Book dinner for two and arrive early for a Liberty Bay walk.

Bring visiting family to the Naval Undersea Museum and downtown Poulsbo.

Ask the front desk about adding Saturday night to a work or family visit.

Love it here?

Ask the front desk about adding a night or a guest.
