

FALL IN KINGSTON

Ferry views, market finds, forest trails, and room to exhale.

VisitKitsap.com

VISIT KITSAP PENINSULA

The Natural Side of the Puget Sound

I have 30 minutes

Stroll through the Port of Kingston marina and Mike Wallace Park.

Pick up coffee or a bakery treat within walking distance of the ferry.

Watch the Edmonds ferry cross Appletree Cove.

Browse a downtown shop, then return by the pedestrian path.

I have 2 hours

Explore the Kingston Public Market on Sundays through Oct. 11, then have lunch by the ferry.

Walk the Village Green and downtown loop, then stop for soup or coffee.

Visit Heronswood Garden, owned and operated by the Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribe; check seasonal hours.

Drive to Port Gamble for historic streets, shops, and a forest or waterfront walk.

I have tonight free

Have dinner at Kingston Ale House or another downtown favorite, then walk the marina.

Visit The Point Casino and Hotel for dining or entertainment; casino floor is 21+.

Catch the Oct. 3 Sunset Market, then stay for dinner at a local spot.

Use an evening to settle in rather than join the return-ferry rush

I have Saturday

Heronswood Garden, Port Gamble, and dinner in Kingston make a strong North Kitsap day.

Pair a forest hike with the Port Gamble Ghost Conference Nov. 6-8.

Take a ferry-view market morning and a beach or estuary walk in the afternoon.

Follow a Tribal-owned route: Heronswood, Gliding Eagle Marketplace, and The Point Casino and Hotel.

Someone is joining me

Meet at the ferry for coffee and an Appletree Cove walk.

Book dinner, then watch the ferries and lights from the marina.

Bring the family to Heronswood and Port Gamble.

Ask about a second night before continuing to the Olympic Peninsula.

Love it here?

Ask the front desk about adding a night or a guest.

VISIT KITSAP PENINSULA

The Natural Side of the Puget Sound

I have 30 minutes

Walk the marina and watch the ferry load from Mike Wallace Park.

Grab coffee and something warm before the next leg of your trip.

Take a short Village Green loop.

Pick up road-trip provisions at a local or Tribal-owned market.

I have 2 hours

Visit Heronswood Garden on a winter weekend; waterproof shoes recommended.

Pair lunch in Kingston with a walk around Appletree Cove.

Drive to Port Gamble for historic streets and winter lights.

Explore the Village Green library and a nearby cafe on a rainy day.

I have tonight free

Have dinner downtown and watch the ferries come and go.

Choose dining or entertainment at The Point Casino and Hotel; casino floor is 21+.

Stay local after Cove Christmas rather than driving home late.

Ask the front desk whether a second night makes tomorrow's ferry or Olympic Peninsula drive easier.

I have Saturday

Cove Christmas in Kingston and Country Christmas in Port Gamble both fall on Dec. 5.

Visit Heronswood, Port Gamble, and The Point Casino and Hotel in one easy loop.

Take a North Kitsap culture day to Suquamish Museum and Clearwater Casino Resort.

Choose a forest walk in daylight and an indoor evening close to the hotel.

Someone is joining me

Meet at the ferry for coffee and a winter waterfront walk.

Plan dinner and entertainment at The Point.

Bring family to Heronswood and the Port Gamble holiday lights.

Extend the visit so no one has to watch the clock for the last convenient ferry.

Local Tribal Destinations and Context

Heronswood Garden, The Point Casino and Hotel, and Gliding Eagle Marketplace are Port Gamble S'Klallam-owned visitor destinations.

The S'Klallam Connections garden at Heronswood centers relationships among plants, people, and culture.

Suquamish Museum is a worthwhile North Kitsap day trip and should be described through the Tribe's own interpretation.
